SYMPHONY IN C ANNOUNCES SUMMER SYMPHONY CAMP

July 31, 2015 (Collingswood, NJ) – Symphony in C and Music announce the tenth Symphony Summer Camp to be held from August 3rd through the 15th, 8:30 am-12:30 pm. A culminating Summer Symphony Concert will showcase student accomplishments of on Saturday, August 15th at 2:00 pm in the Gordon Theater. The camp will take place in the Fine Arts Building on the Rutgers University Camden Campus.*

This is the twelfth year for the Symphony Summer Camp and it will be open to students studying string, woodwind, brass, and percussion instruments who will be entering grades 6 – 12 in Fall of 2015. Musicians will receive private lessons from Symphony in C's professional musicians and participate in side-by-side rehearsals with their teachers, and sectionals as the students prepare for their end-of-camp Grand Finale Performance. Students will be introduced musical performance, with daily lessons designed to enhance music skills, as well as teaching children melody, pitch and ear training-all essential skills for aspiring musicians. Campers receive the music and book materials they will need for the camp, as well as a recording of the final concert.

Paul Bryan, an alumnus of Symphony in C's Professional Development Program, who has served as Director of *Summer Symphony Camp since it began in 2004, returns to direct the camp once again. Paul Bryan is the dean of faculty and students for the Curtis Institute of Music. He currently serves as director and conductor of Bravo Brass, conductor and music director of Philos Brass, and artistic advisor of the Symphony in C Youth Orchestra.

Kenny Bean is the Conductor of Symphony in C's Youth Orchestra and will join Paul Bryan in the artistic direction of the *Symphony Summer Camp. He also serves of Music

Director and Conductor of the Junior String Philharmonic of Lehigh Valley, and is the Associate Director of Philadelphia based Primavera Fund, an initiative to fund music education for youth in Philadelphia.

This program made possible in part by funds from Cooper University Health Care, the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, The Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, the William G. Rohrer Charitable Trust, The Presser Foundation, and Horizon Foundation for New Jersey, Symphony in C is a member of the South Jersey Cultural Alliance (SJCA).
